MINOR CLASHES IN DETROIT

1,300 Arrested For Rioting: Dame Rumour Causes Trouble

DETROIT (Michigan), June 23.

Sporadic outbreaks occurred at several points on Tuesday night but were quickly quelled. Few persons ventured into the street as police and soldiers roamed the city looking for trouble-makers.

In one sector a few shots were fired when a mob of white youths pursued three Negroes. The Negroes managed to escape while the whites fled with the arrival of the police.

There were no reports of further persons injured up to 22.00 hours local time.

29 KILLED

The riots have resulted in the death of 29 people. The Governor, Mr. Harry F. Kelley, said that he was considering asking for a Special Grand Jury to punish the instigators "commensurate with their crimes."

OVER 1,300 ARRESTED

WASHINGTON, June 22.

Latest reports from Detroit say that peace returned to the city under the guns of the army after 36 hours of blood bath.

More than 1,300 racial rioters have been arrested.

Mr. R. J. Thomas, President of the United Automobile Workers, said he was convinced the riots were the work of German fifth columnists.

The Mayor on the contrary blames the influx of war workers from the Southern States.

HOW TROUBLE STARTED

Police Commissioner, Mr. John H. Witherspoon disclosed that they started as the result of a rumour that a Negro woman and children had been killed by Whites.

"This was pure falsehood but could not be stopped from spreading", he added.

The disturbances reached the climax at an apartment in a hotel where the police drove out the snipers and pyjama-clad tenants by gunfire and hand-grenades.

Theatres must close at 2-15 a.m. as Curfew restrictions remain in effect.

Lyttleton Warns Japan

LONDON, June 23

The Minister of Production Col. Oliver Lyttleton in London to-day warned Japan that "we shall bring the whole weight of our arms to bear so that this threat of invasion will be crushed in the Far East as the threat of invasion of this island has been crushed here. Our kinsmen in the far distant lands will find that we shall wage war against Japan with the same intensity and with the same efficiency that we are waging it against Germany."—Reuter.

Sensational Plan To Quit Australia?

Labour Minister On "Missing Defence Documents" Of Menzies' Govt.

SYDNEY, June 23.

Opposition members of the Australian War Council—a consultative body—are threatening to withdraw from the Council unless the charges by Mr. Edwards Ward, Minister of Labour and National Services, that war Cabinet documents of the pre-Curtin Government are missing, are repudiated by Mr. Curtin, the Commenwealth Prime Minister.

EVACUATION PLANS

Mr. Ward's original charge was that the Menzies' Government intended to evacuate large portions of Australia without firing a shot. Mr. Curtin admitted that a plan submitted to the Curtin Government was rejected. Mr. Ward then alleged that Mr. Robert Menzies, then Prime Minister on his return from England early in 1941, knowing that the Japanese threat was imminent, instructed the drawing up of a defence plan and documents based on these plans were now missing. Opposition war councillors deny all allegations. Mr. Ward alleged that the planned defence line stretched from Brisbane to Adelaide and involved evacuation of the rest of Australia.

Marathon Debate Against Curtin

CANBERRA: The Commonwealth Parliament's Marathon debate on the Opposition no-confidence motion which is expected to be defeated by one vote was still going strong this afternoon.

Replying to the debate Mr. John Curtin, the Commonwealth Prime Minister disclosed that gross enlistments in the Australian army, navy and airforce by March 31, totalled 820,500 of which 530,000 had volunteered to fight anywhere in the world.

U. S. FORCES IN PACIFIC

He also disclosed that American land forces in the south-west and south Pacific areas approximated to Australia's.

U. S. DECORATION FOR SOVIET SOLDIERS

Molotov Speaks Of Joint Offensive By Allies Against Germany

MOSCOW, June 23.

The hope that Soviet-American co-operation would persist after the war was expressed by Admiral William Standley, United States Ambassador in Moscow in handing over American decorations to Soviet soldiers, sailors and pilots at the Kremlin to-day.

"I think it is not vain to hope that from this comradeship of arms, there will develop enduring friendship for there is much in common between us apart from our hate of the enemy. I am convinced that we shall be just as successful in fulfilling the tasks of the future."

MOLOTOV'S REPLY

Thanking Admiral Standley for the decorations, M. Molotov, the Soviet Foreign Commissar said "I am convinced that Soviet fighting men will be proud of their decorations and will strive to multiply their achievements for their fatherland—the country of Lenin and Stalin—and for the sake of the great cause of liberation which unites our nations in the struggle against Fascist Germany.

Let us remember that millions of people who have made countrywide sacrifice, are deep in the conviction that the time is not far off, when the enemy will fully learn the crushing strength of the joint offensive of the Allies."—Reuter.

Reds Raid Nazi Drome

MOSCOW, June 23.

German infantry attempting to cross the northern Donetz suffered casualties when Soviet patrols sank several boats, according to the supplement to today's Soviet Communique, which states that the Soviet air force raided a German aerodrome destroying 20 planes on the ground.

U. S. AIRMAN IN MOSCOW

It was reported in Moscow today that Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, the famous United States airman has been in Moscow since Sunday. Capt. Rickenbacker was missing for three weeks late in 1942, while flying in the Pacific.

4 GERMAN CUTTERS SUNK.

The Soviet Communique says:—

On the Leningrad front Soviet snipers annihilated 200 Germans. The supplement describes as untrue the German High Command announcement of yesterday that on the night on June 19 light German naval forces shelled a town and port on the sea of Azov.

Adding "In reality seven German cutters attempted to approach the town but were attacked by Soviet artillery and aircraft and four were sunk."

Governor Commends Poona Suburban Municipality's Work

In the course of his reply to an address presented by the Poona Suburban Municipality on Wednesday, the Governor of Bombay, said:—"Your financial position is sound, as a result of your prudent and economical management of your affairs; you have to your credit a complete town-planning scheme in Bhamburda as evidence that, in your hands, the development of the suburbs of Poona is conducted along sound lines; you have shown yourselves fully aware of the necessity for up-to-date and reliable methods of lighting and sanitation; and I have been particularly glad to note the evidence which you give, of the Municipality's anxiety to do all it can for the medical relief, the health and welfare, of the poorer people in its charge. I refer especially to the free dispensaries at Yeravda and Wakdewadi and I note with special pleasure Khan Bahadur Jehangir Pestanji's generous gift of Rs. 6,000 towards the maternity ward at Yeravda."

Royal Arsenal At Naples Hit

R.A.F. And U.S. Aircraft Hammer At Targets In Sicily And Italy

LONDON, June 23.

Allied Headquarters in North Africa:

The text of the 'communique' states: "On the night of June 21-22 "Wellington" bombers attacked Salerno. Many fires were started in marshalling yards. Yesterday air activity was confined to patrolling. During the evening of June 21 an enemy merchant vessel was sunk by aircraft of the coastal air force. One of our aircraft is missing from these operations".

Salerno is 30 miles east south-east of Naples.

TWO-TON BLOCK-BUSTERS

Bombs used on Salerno included two-ton block-busters which shattered marshalling yards and exploded near barracks starting one big fire and several smaller ones. Photographs taken yesterday by reconnaissance aircraft have revealed that tremendous damage was done to Naples and neighbouring targets by the daylight raids of Flying Fortresses and Mitchells on Monday. Not only was about 40 per cent of the Royal Arsenal at Naples destroyed out at least three hits were made on a torpedo factory. The Breda Airframe Factory sustained severe damage and several hits were made on and among buildings of artillery barracks and motor transport depots.

At Battipaglia forty units of rolling stock were destroyed or damaged. There has been no movement of rolling stock since the raid at Salerno and salvage works at both approaches to the railway sidings were severely damaged.

ROME ADMISSION

ROME: An Italian communique announces that Allied planes bombed Salerno, Castel, Vetrano, Mallazzo and Olbia.

ATTACK ON SICILY AND SOUTHERN ITALY

VALETTA (Malta): A communique from the R.A.F. Headquarters in Malta says: "Our intruders were over Sicily and Southern Italy last night. Railway communications, station buildings and a factory were attacked with bombs and machine-gun fire. From these and other operations none of our aircraft are missing."

The Malta Air Force last night continued widespread attacks on Sicilian and Italian railways. Sibari marshalling yards were bombed and gunned. Cannon shells were seen to strike engine tracks and station buildings and continuous blue flashes along yards followed. Railway sidings at Camicati and Licata were also attacked. Licata was raked with cannon-fire producing brilliant blue and yellow flashes. A factory at Trebieacce was bombed and gunned.

AXIS SAILING BOAT SUNK

CAIRO: Today's Middle East Air communique states: "Light bombers of the R.A.F. sank a small sailing vessel off the coast of Scarpanto Island in the Aegean Sea on June 21."—Reuter.

Labourers Faint While At Work

(From Our Correspondent).

BIJAPUR, June 23.

The Bijapur district is in a state of panic, because of the general impression that the district won't receive an adequate supply of grain in the coming months. The impression is strengthened by the labourers on works getting only eight annas worth of Bajri, i.e., only 3 1/2 seers per week instead of one rupee worth. The Mamlatdars and Mahalkari are informing the conductors of free kitchens under Bombay and Sholapur Relief Committees that grain on the reduced basis of 30 tolas and 15 tolas per adult and child respectively per day will be issued. This proportion of supply will not suffice even for one meal.

Labourers on the works are fainting while working due to the effect of semi-starvation—the effect of inadequate supply of grain.

To add to this the P. W. D. has not paid three weeks' wages nor the advances to the workers on many works for their daily maintenance.

The miseries due to inadequate supply of grain are being felt by the villagers also. In some villages in Hungund Taluka people have begun to migrate again due to insufficient grain supply and the bad state of weaving industry.

Messrs. A. V. Thakkar, Ghandhy and Vaikunth Mehta, members of Bombay Relief Committee are being surrounded and supplicated by hungry workers and villagers wherever they go.

R.A.F. RAIDS NAZI STEEL TOWN SUBURB

LONDON, June 23.

An Air Ministry Communique states: "Last night aircraft of the Bomber Command made a heavy attack on objectives at Mulheim, one of the smaller towns in the Ruhr. Preliminary reports indicate that bombing was well concentrated. The crews reported that fires were still burning at Krefeld and Huls.

Aircraft of the Fighter Command carried out intruder patrols over Holland and France. Two enemy aircraft were destroyed over Holland. Thirty-five bombers and one fighter are missing.

Mulheim, is a satellite town of Duisburg. It is an important city of German steel industry, and is one of the principal outlets of the Ruhr to south Germany by rail.

Fires started during the 700-bomber attack on Krefeld the night before were still burning. Huls, Antwerp, and Rotterdam were still smarting from yesterday's daylight raids by United States' Flying Fortresses.

RAIDS ON BRITAIN

LONDON: An Air Ministry Communique states that there was little German air activity over parts of East Anglia, south-east England and Greater London area last night. Bombs were dropped at a few points causing slight damage and a small number of casualties.

Indian Press Warns Wavell

"Any Attempt At By-Passing National Demand Will Prove Boomerang"

MADRAS, June 23

"India will no doubt be grateful to him for his expression of sympathy with her aspirations to political development; but she cannot pretend to even a mild excitement over his announcement that there will be no going back on past pledges" says the "Hindu" in the course of an editorial commenting on Sir Archibald Wavell's first public statement on India.

ON BRITAIN'S PLEDGES!

"Formally to annual pledges once made"—continues the paper, "would be something revolutionary. That is not the British way. Britain makes her pledges with every intention of honouring them when the time comes, but somehow or other the time never seems to come."

"India's case against the British Government which Sir Archibald Wavell's halting statements in no way disprove, is that no change is contemplated in do-nothing policy that has perpetuated the deadlock."

"WILL PROVE A BOOMERANG"

Concluding the Hindu says "but if this war has proved one thing it is that only a free people fighting to defend their freedom can be moved to make that all-out effort which brings victory. It is more valuable to mobilise the goodwill of a great people than to impress their resources. On the other hand, any policy that aims at by-passing the demand for freedom must prove a boomerang."

Vain Attempt To Disarm Critics

NEW DELHI, June 23

"Tell-tale concern that he should not be taken for a mere political illiterate seems to have prompted Field-Marshal Wavell in his address to Empire journalists on Tuesday", says "Dawn" in an editorial.

His comment on his choice, the paper proceeds, is now laboured, and the qualifications he saw in himself as he donned civilian clothes, would not have passed muster with an International Public Service Commission set to examine candidates for high office and pro-consular duties abroad.

The paper concludes: "The Viceroy-designate is at pains to indicate that a military dictatorship is not in store for India. If not such a dictatorship (which is equivalent to Government without popular control) what is it then that he has in view? The present muddle is so bad that we do not share the alarming opinion of some observers that King Stork is being sent by Churchill Jupiter, in place of King Log.

Sir Archibald's attempt to disarm critics has the appearance of something that looks heavy but happens to groan hollow.

Talk of this kind does not befit him who can better pass off in his regime as the strong silent man. But don't let him speak thus, for himself—in a manner of apology, wondering whether after all there cannot be an exception to the English proverb. 'You cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear'."—A. P.

"No Promise Of Sunshine"

CALCUTTA, June 23: "Field-Marshal Wavell's pronouncement does not, frankly, hold out any promise of the sunshine, which is needed as much for the drying up of the prevailing bog of frustration as for the growth of the soil for the post-war reconstruction of India," writes the evening Muslim daily "Star of India", commenting on the first speech made by the Viceroy-designate of India.

"The mailed fist must forthwith be withdrawn into a velvet glove, if Sir Archibald hopes to make a success of his new office", concludes the paper. —A. P.

British Press Reaction

LONDON, June 23.

The circumstances of to-day when India occupies one of the foremost strategic positions in the world conflict render it entirely appropriate that a soldier statesman should preside over the affairs, says the "Daily Telegraph" to-day commenting on Sir Archibald Wavell's first public statement as the Viceroy-elect.

It says: "Therein lies the surest guarantee that her political administration will be integrated in the most effective manner with the military rule she is destined to play."

But, adds the paper, lest there should be any misunderstanding on this point, the Viceroy-elect was at pains to emphasise in his statement yesterday that his appointment in no way implies the setting up of military rule in any shape or form.

The editorial adds: 'It is true that only a relatively small minority of the Indian army is recruited from "Congress" India, but to a man of Sir Archibald Wavell's generous outlook that will be no barrier to a better understanding with all sections of Indian people.

It was an act of high courage to accept this difficult and responsible office, but no Englishman could enter upon it with a more illustrious promise of his ability to lead India to victory over her own dissentients as well as over the enemy without."

Promising Statement

The organ of the British Labour Party, the "Daily Herald", writes today that the statement by Sir Archibald Wavell about his new office is "not only satisfactory but promising.

The greatest task of the new Viceroy will be to create an atmosphere of harmony among the Indian communities and between the Indian communities and the British Government.

If he succeeds the first war transition to Indian self-Government will be smooth and rapid.

Wavell's troops have talked of him as a comrade. His ambition must be to achieve the same relationship with the people of India."

Declaring the British Government must give strong backing to the new Viceroy, the newspaper adds, "The time has come for reasserting of British statesmanship from the top. You cannot merely leave it to Wavell".—Reuter.

"Yorkshire Post's" Sermon To Indians

LONDON: The "Yorkshire Post" commenting on Field Marshal Wavell's statement yesterday remarks that it is by no means necessary in Field Marshal Wavell's view that India's political development should be halted until the war is won. At present it is halted for two main reasons: because Congress leaders cannot make up their minds to support the Allied war effort and because Hindus and Muslims cannot reach a working agreement between themselves. Those are obstacles that only Indians can remove. But Indians of all parties who seriously wish to remove them will find in the new Viceroy a friend of their country who will always be ready to help."

CHUNGKING REACTION

CHUNGKING, June 23: The Chinese Information Minister Mr. Chang Tao Fung Fu giving the Chinese view of the appointment of Sir Archibald Wavell as Viceroy of India said at a Press Conference to-day: "It is most appropriate. As Commander-in-Chief Gen. Wavell contributed outstandingly towards the consolidation of the defence of India against the threat of Japanese invasion. His knowledge of China and the general situation in the Far East will strengthen further the intimate understanding and comradeship of India and China."

PARTY POSITION IN FRONTIER ASSEMBLY

PESHAWAR, June 23

Sardar Aurangzeb Khan, Premier, N. W. F. Province, interviewed by the "United Press" said: "Figures of different parliamentary parties including the Muslim League Party in the Frontier Assembly, circulated by a news agency (not the "United Press") are absolutely incorrect. This version," he said, "is likely to create misunderstanding in the public."

It is stated in the responsible circles of the Muslim League that the party positions at present here are as follows:—

Ministerialists—21 including the 20 members of the Muslim League and one Sikh.

Independents—Three; Congress Members are 18 including 8 who are in jails; Hindu Nationalists—1.

Seven seats are vacant of which are four for Muhammadans, two for Hindus and one for Sikhs.

The "United Press" understands that the by-elections for these seven seats will be held on or about August 6 and 7 at one and the same time—United Press.

END OF U.S. COAL STRIKE

Lewis "Loses Face" But Owners Lose Control Of Mines

PITTSBURGH, June 23.

Mine-workers began coming back to the pits this morning as the news of the United Mine-workers' Policy Committee's decision reached the coal-fields. An increasing number is expected to report for the afternoon and night shifts. The steel companies called off their plans for further curtailment of operations. The United Steel Corporation announced that the thirteen blast furnaces scheduled to shut down to-morrow will be kept going.

As the result of their leaders latest orders America's 530,000 miners will be back to work on Thursday under the Stars and Stripes after their third nation-wide strike in two months.

While Mr. Lewis has "lost face" as the result of the United Mine-workers' decision the coal-owners seem to have lost control of the mines—temporarily if not for the duration.

WHAT MINERS GOT

WASHINGTON: Mr. Lewis' decision means the United Mine-Workers have bowed their head to the storm of criticism throughout the nation by accepting the War Labour Board's recommendation for allowances totalling about 25 cents per day increase. The miners had demanded two dollars but subsequently wittled this down to one dollar fifty cents under the guise of payment for travelling time between the pithead and the coalface.

Mr. Lewis now plans to take the miners case to the courts.

RESULT OF STRIKE

Experts estimate the stoppage already has cost the United States war effort some 30,000 tons of steel as a result of the shortfall of coal reserves.

Mr. Donald Nelson of the War Production Board disclosed that the War Production Board's plans for increase in steel production by a million tons in July, August and September had been postponed.

The United Mine Workers Policy Committee headed by Mr. John L Lewis ordered miners to return to work until October 31, provided that Government remains in control of the production of coal.

WANTED DEEDS

Field Marshal Wavell's speech on his appointment as Viceroy of India should not be considered too critically nor too seriously. It is a nicely worded conventional speech like most other speeches made in the past by previous Viceroys-designate on similar occasions. Which Viceroy has not begun by saying how dearly he loves India, how whole-heartedly he sympathises with her political aspirations and how sincerely he would help in the fulfilment of those aspirations? Most Indians will make due allowances for such phrases and will patiently wait and see how they will be translated into action. They have had pledges and assurances enough. They want deeds. They will not be jubilant over Sir Archibald's solemn assurance that there is certainly no intention "to withdraw or weaken in any way the pledges and offers already made to India by His Majesty's Government." The pledges, the offers and the assurances have always been vague enough to be explained away when found inconvenient.

Though for the most part the new Viceroy's speech is conventional, it is, to some extent, a reply to criticisms made in India on his appointment. But was it really necessary to remind us that "there is no intention to set up anything in the shape of a military rule"? And is the present Ordinance rule with its endless story of imprisonment without any trial so much better than military rule? Another unconventional feature of the speech is Sir Archibald's frank admission, "I am very well aware of how little I know of this vast country." But his ignorance does not prevent his appointment as its Viceroy and his acceptance of the post. And the British papers protest that the appointment is the very best that could have been made. It is "entirely appropriate," says the "Daily Telegraph", "that a soldier statesman should preside over the affairs" of India at this time. Yet the entire appropriateness of the choice never occurred to the paper before the choice was announced. Probably any other choice would have been greeted as also entirely appropriate. Such an attitude on the part of the British press should not surprise us when even the "Daily Herald" describes Sir Archibald's speech "as not only satisfactory but promising."

Promising the speech may be from the British point of view but Indians see little promise in the Viceroy-designate's warning "that India's progress must depend on the successful prosecution of the war and that complete fulfilment of her aspirations requires the removal of the Japanese menace." It is a pity that it does not occur to the "soldier-statesman" that India's political progress is itself an essential means of the speedy and complete removal of the Japanese menace. Sir Archibald hastens to add that his words should not be taken to mean that "there can be no political progress before the end of the war." But he studiously avoids giving the least idea of what progress he has in mind before the war is over. If his reference to Government's past offers suggests that the Cripps offer is neither withdrawn nor weakened, it is anything but reassuring. We can only thank him for not repeating the cruel joke that the solution of the deadlock depends entirely on Gandhiji, who has only to decide for the Congress without exchanging a word with Congress or other leaders.

Allied Air Attacks

The Allies have again resumed their air offensive on a heavy scale against both Germany and Italy. The other night R. A. F. 'Lancasters' flew to Friedrichshaven on the border of Switzerland and made a successful raid without any loss to themselves. This suggests two things: first, the Germans did not expect a heavy attack on the target, and, second, they do not possess anti-aircraft guns and night fighters in sufficient quantity to disperse them in effective defence of all vulnerable and valuable targets. The next night an important Rhineland town received what appears to have been a truly devastating blow. This was followed by an American daylight raid on a town in the Ruhr which, too, is reported to have been fairly successful. Apart from the renewal of the offensive the extension of the American daylight attacks to the heart of industrial Germany is an interesting development.

Similarly the tempo of the air war on Italy which had slowed down after Pantelleria has, again, been increased. Sicily and Sardinia, particularly the former are, again, being subjected to a day and night hammering with good effect. And Naples, that unfortunate town and harbour in metropolitan Italy, has had a double and extremely severe plastering. Its plight must now be pitiable, indeed. But what interests the world is the question how long will the Allies take to launch their promised invasion. We learn indirectly through the report by Reuter's of Press questions to Colonel Knox that the Russians have renewed demands for a second front. Russian impatience is both significant and just.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

U. S. Carrier Strength

During the past week or two American and Australian aircraft have scored some of the best air successes against the Japs over the whole of the South-West Pacific area. These successes show how the Allies established air superiority, if not complete supremacy over the Japs. But no such proof is really necessary of the changed situation in the South-West Pacific in view of the fact that Mr. Curtin himself has found it permissible to give up his pessimism. The Japs are now definitely on the defensive. But even more gratifying is the information just given by Colonel Knox that "the construction of aircraft-carriers will result in several times the numbers of carriers being in the fleet at the end of 1943 as there were at the end of 1941." The aircraft-carrier is the spearhead of any aggressive activity on the ocean front of Japan. The Japs know it and they will not be happy over the statement of Colonel Knox.

Hitler's Inactivity

We said the other day that it was due to Russia's resistance during the last two years that the Germans had now begun to speak in terms of the defensive. This change is being reflected also in the noteworthy lack of any military activity on the part of the Germans on the eastern front. The present lull was to have been broken a good many weeks ago. It still continues without any sign of breaking. Hitler might have marked the second anniversary of his attack on Russia by some significant activity, for, it is his move and his weather. But he did nothing. And if he goes on doing nothing for another few weeks, he will have lost his last chance of any large scale offensive against Russia he confidently set out to destroy two years ago.

An Unenviable Achievement

The presence of 1415 detenus in Mysore State under Section 26 of the Defence of India Rules perhaps beats the average for British India. But that is an achievement for which the people of the State will not bless the Government. The Government is not responsible to the people nor can it be questioned by the equally guilty Paramount Power. But though the people have their tribulations now, their deliverance cannot be long delayed. The sufferings of one will inspire a thousand about him and it may be that Mysore will give the lead to the States in the successful struggle for democratic Government.

"Let Congressmen Meet"

Sir,—In your leading article, "Let Congressmen Meet," of 22nd inst. You have done a great service to the country by advising the Congressmen to take stock of the present situation in the country and not to remain unconcerned. The advice is more welcome at the present critical juncture and I hope it will be seriously considered and acted upon by the Congressmen who have the country's interests at heart. The change in the Viceroyalty which reflects the British Government's attitude towards Indian problems which can be said in two words "Nothing Doing" which has proved non-helpful to both the parties. Besides, the attempts of certain persons including a few so called Congressmen to form Coalition Ministries is an urgent matter which demands serious considerations at the hands of the Congressmen. It is the duty of the Congressmen to point out that these moves on the part of certain interested persons to form the Ministries is not constitutional and, therefore, undemocratic. These two important things together with your sound advice will prevail upon the Congressmen—workers and supporters, and they will move for calling conference to consider the present situation and safeguard Congress interests. I am sure, sir, that you will give all your support if such move is made by the Congressmen in the city.

SABOTEURS HINDER MANUFACTURE OF BOMBS AND GRENADES

7 Persons Arrested In America: Accused Plead Not Guilty To Charge

WASHINGTON, June 22.

The head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Mr. J. Edgar Hoover announced to-day that seven persons had been arrested at Rochester, New York State, on charges of sabotage in connection with alleged faulty manufacture of incendiary bombs and hand grenades for the United Nations forces.

Mr. Hoover said it was also charged that attempts had been made to pass material previously rejected by the army inspector. Among those arrested was Amerigo Antonelli, a 52-year-old Italian who became a naturalised American.

The arrested men face a maximum penalty of thirty years imprisonment and a fine of 10,000 dollars.

ARRESTED MEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

ROCHESTER, (New York) June 23.

Amerigo Antonelli and six assistants pleaded not guilty to-day to charges of sabotage. The men were remanded in custody of the United States Marshal pending the hearing on Wednesday. The Federal Bureau of Investigation described Antonelli as the son of a man "who is reported to be royal pyrotechnician to the King of Italy".

"Tea Pot Dome Scandal"

The assistant Attorney General Mr. Littell said that the contract recently cancelled between the Navy Department and the Standard Oil Company of California exceeded the "tea pot dome scandal". The contract was for oil operation of the Elk Hills petroleum reserve in California.

Mr. Littell to-day told Reuter that his statement was intended to indicate the extent of the Elk Hills contract by which the state actually relinquished to the company an interest in the oil content of the land. "In the tea pot dome" case private interests merely acquired crude oil and other benefits.

Govt. May Create Independent Agency

WASHINGTON, June 23.

The United States navy is faced with the urgent need for a solution of a "second tea pot dome scandal" in order to safeguard its fuel supplies.

Whether this will take the form of a fresh contract with the Standard Oil or the creation of a Government agency to exploit the Elk Hill reserve is at present not clear.—Reuter.

Supplementary Sugar Ration For Children

BOMBAY, June 23.

The Director of Information writes: Arrangements have now been made to issue supplementary ration cards for one unit of sugar to children between two and 12 years of age and a ration card for two units of sugar to children below two. These cards will be issued on application at the Rationing Office of the ward in which the holder of the food grains ration card resides.

Applications for a supplementary ration for children between two and 12 should be made in application form S1, which can be had at the Ward Rationing Office. On production of the food grains ration card and verification of the number of children as shown in the application with those shown on the ration card the Rationing Officer of the Ward will issue a supplementary ration card for one sugar unit in respect of each such child.

For children below two an application should be made in form S2. The Ward Rationing Officers will not issue ration cards without verification of the particulars and, therefore, the counterfoils to the application form will be handed over by the Rationing Office to the applicant to be produced on the date that will be mentioned on the counterfoil. If, on inquiry made by the Rationing staff, the particulars mentioned in the application are found to be correct, a ration card for two sugar units in respect of each child below two will be prepared at the Rationing Office and handed over to the applicant.

These sugar ration cards will have to be registered by the holder with the same distributor with whom he has registered his food grains ration card.

Karachi Corporation Deadlock Averted

KARACHI, June 23.—The "incident" that had threatened the Karachi Municipal Corporation with a deadlock as a result of the Mayor's taking objection to the remarks of a certain member and the latter's continued refusal over a series of meetings to leave the hall despite the Mayor's ruling to that effect was amicably settled this afternoon. Lala Shambunath, the Mayor, informed the House today that the member in question Dr. Haji, had withdrawn his remarks and that the Mayor on his part had cancelled the order of suspension against Dr. Haji.—A. "Kismet" enters the 25th week next Saturday. The success which this picture has achieved, speaks enough for the skill of the producer, the understanding of the director, the portrayals by the artistes and the ability of all those associated with its production. Our hearty congratulations to Bombay Talkies!

Meyer Nissim's Estate Suit Dismissed By Consent

(Before the Hon. Mr. Justice Coyajee)

The Official Assignee of Bombay and Assignee of the Estate of Meyer Nissim .... Plaintiff.

Versus

Jamnadas M. Mehta .... Defendant.

Prior to 1937, there had been money dealings between Meyer Nissim and the defendant from time to time, the balance fluctuating in favour of the one or the other. Meyer Nissim had filed the present suit to recover in all Rs. 1,33,246-7-0 alleged to be due and owing by the defendant. Thereafter, on July 16, 1940, Meyer Nissim was adjudicated insolvent on his own petition and the suit was being continued by the Official Assignee.

By his written statement, the defendant had denied 'in toto' his liability to Meyer Nissim. He further contended that as against the claim in suit, the defendant had a larger claim against Meyer Nissim and that by a writting dated 27th June, 1940, it was 'inter alia' agreed between them that each should give up his claim against the other and that Meyer Nissim should allow this suit to be dismissed or withdrawn.

In the course of a hearing extending over a fortnight, Meyer Nissim had been cross-examined for over a week. On Wednesday, his Lordship passed a Consent Decree to the effect that the suit be dismissed, no order as to costs, and all allegations against the defendant be unconditionally withdrawn. The sanction of the Insolvency Judge to this compromise had been obtained by the plaintiff on Monday.

Mr. J. H. Vakeel and Mr. J. A. Shah instructed by Messrs. Kanga and Co. appeared for the plaintiff.

Mr. V. F. Taraporewalla, the Advocate-General Mr. N. P. Engineer and Mr. J. C. Bhatt instructed by Messrs. Purmanand and Jasubhai appeared for the defendant.

Depressed Classes Mission (Mangalore)

The Depressed Classes Mission, Mangalore, which was founded so far back as 1897 by that pioneer social reformer of Kanara, the late Rao Saheb K. Ranga Rao (Swami Ishwarananda) and which is now under the management of the Servants of India Society, is conducting four elementary schools with a total of 282 pupils, three boarding houses with 110 inmates, a number of "colonies" in which about 88 depressed class families have been settled and a maternity fund, for the benefit of the depressed classes of the district. The report of the various institutions for 1941-2 bears ample evidence of the good work which the Mission is carrying on in various parts of Kanara.

The financial position of the Mission, however, is far from satisfactory. The cumulative deficit during the past several years has mounted up to nearly Rs. 10,000. The committee of management, of which Pandit Hridaynath Kunzru is president, and which includes some of the leading public men of the district, earnestly hopes that those who feel for the depressed classes will come to the rescue of the Mission by generous donations and help the Mission to carry on its welfare work among this unfortunate section of Indian humanity. Mr. S. R. Venkata Raman, B.A., B.L., member of the Servants of India Society and Honorary Secretary of the Mission, has arrived in Bombay to seek the help of the philanthropic public in this connection. Contributions may kindly be sent to Mr. R. P. Bakhale, Servants of India Society, Sandhurst Road, Girgaum, Bombay.

New Irrigation Schemes

Adviser's Plan To Speed-Up Grow-More-Food Campaign

(From Our Correspondent).

NEW DELHI, June 23.

A comprehensive memorandum on irrigation possibilities as integral part of "grow-more-food" campaign has been submitted by Sir William Stampe, newly appointed Irrigation Adviser to the Government of India.

Sir William advocates giving up of the old classification of major and minor irrigation works and their substitution by emergency irrigation works which is defined as one that could be completed within a year. He has two definite schemes in view in particular, namely, extension of tube-wells in the United Provinces and lifting of river or canal water from low level by means of barges. Provincial Governments have been asked to send their schemes for examination by the Government of India.

Sir William is touring India and discussing the various possibilities of improving the irrigation system.

Shayamaprasad-Savarkar Differences

NEW DELHI, June 22.

It is gathered from well-informed quarters that Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukerjee is not prepared to go wholehog with Mr. Savarkar's new policy of making alliance with the Muslim League to restore popular ministries in the provinces. He is rather said to be of the view that Mahasabha should align itself with the Congress on this issue.

Matters are expected to come to a head as a result of this difference in Mahasabha High Command. If Mr. Savarkar persists in his present course the possibility of a split cannot be ruled out. Political circles here are, therefore, not very optimistic about the results of the efforts of Mr. Wadhwani, Sind Minister, for bringing about a League-Sabha understanding.—Orient Press.

Progress Of Indian Air Force

Speeches exhorting the young men of the country to join the Indian Air Force and defend the liberty of the country were made by various speakers at a public meeting held at the Framji Cowasji Hall, Dhobitalao, on Wednesday evening. Several interesting films showing the life, training and activities of young airmen were exhibited.

Mr. Jamnadas Mehta who was present on the occasion stated that he had seen something of the Air Force, and had a high opinion of some of the Indian pilots.

Mr. R. K. Karanjia appealed to the parents to encourage their sons to take to aerial career.

Flight Lieut. Mukne, Raja of Jawhar observed that the Indian Air Force had progressed abundantly in recent years. Their planes were excellent and they had expert Indian technicians to maintain complicated machinery. He appealed to young Indians to take advantage of the present opportunities by joining the I.A.F.

Ada Bazar Rocked By Earthquake Again

LONDON, June 23.

The German News Agency quoting an Ankara dispatch reports that three more strong earthquakes occurred on Tuesday in Ada Bazar in the district of Turkey, 130 miles from Istanbul. The dispatch said that two special trains with 400 people injured in the Sunday's earthquake there have arrived in Istanbul.—Reuter.

TETE-A-TETE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

The most colourful troops seen by His Majesty were the Indians with their fierce moustaches and beards and intricately bound turbans—the Madras and Bengal Sappers, the Royal Bombay Sappers, the Rajputana Rifles, the Punjabis, bearded Sikhs and fierce Gurkhas.—Reuter.

You might well wonder why Field-Marshal Wavell was not allowed to hold his Press Conference without Mr. Amery being present at it. But you would be wrong in inferring that the Secretary of State was there as a sort of watch and ward officer lest the Viceroy-Designate blunder into some genuinely democratic indiscretion. Quite on the contrary.

Mr. Amery personally attended the conference as a symbolical demonstration of the present British Government's moral support to, and complete confidence in, Sir Archibald Wavell. He also meant the world to know that.

Now you can understand what Mr. Churchill's right and left hand men as regards India said at the conference.

"I am" Field-Marshal Wavell urged, "a sincere friend of India."

There is no need to doubt this claim. But the difficulty is that so is. Lord Linlithgow, Mr. Amery or Mr. Churchill. In fact, the Field Marshal will be the first to insist that they are all "sincere friends" of India.

* * *

Sir Archibald Wavell also gave the assurance that there was no intention "to set up anything in the shape of military rule."

Of course there is none. It's so unnecessary and superfluous thanks to Whitehall plus the Governor-General-in-Council.

* * *

The London "Daily Herald" demands that the British Government must give strong backing to the new Viceroy.

That is the one thing the British Government will give fully, unhesitatingly, cheerfully and firmly.

* * *

Mr. A. M. Alla Pichai of Madras who recently resigned from the Muslim League has just declared his belief that "if the question is who should rule India—Britishers or Hindus, I would prefer the Hindus to the former."

This is a traitorously blasphemous statement which must not be allowed to go unpunished. The Qaid-e-Azam should therefore reject Mr. Pichai's resignation and solemnly pronounce upon the man the sentence of ignominious expulsion.

* * *

"The world" says Reuter's Algiers correspondent, "now knows that the Allies did intervene" in the de Gaulle-Giraud dispute.

And owing to the zeal of the correspondent the world also knows that the intervention amounted to "a veto on any transfer of effective control of the French forces from General Giraud to General de Gaulle.

The world thanks Reuter's Special correspondent.

* * *

"Daughter," said the father, "is that young man serious in his intentions?"

"Guess he must be, dad," she replied. "He's asked how much I make, what kind of meals we have, and what you and mother are like to live with."

The Half-Column

THEY SAY that the U. S. Office of War Information is the sort of place we Indians should go to when we want enlightenment on war information about the U.S. Now there are just one or two points bothering me.

(1) What is all this labour strike about that is holding up vital war production?

(2) Don't ALL Americans feel that the war effort must come above everything else, including such little things as wages—or FREEDOM, which is a much advertised commodity?

(3) According to a leader in yesterday's "Times of India" Mr. John L. Lewis is "a traitor". If Mr. Lewis was a traitor also according to Americans, couldn't he be put in jail or something, even as other people are being put in jail because of their alleged holding up of the war-effort in other parts of the world?

(4) Which of the Four Freedoms, we read advertised by the U.S., is being denied to these Labour strikers and if they have all these four freedoms what are they grumbling about?

(5) Is it necessary for the U.S. President to pass an Ordinance re: strikes in war-producing industries; cannot the U.S. depend on the voluntary patriotism of its peace-loving, freedom-enjoying working class in this righteous war for WORLD freedom?

(6) What is this Detroit trouble all about?

(7) What is the meaning of the following extract from Reuter: "Most of the dead are Negroes many of whom were killed resisting the police?

(8) Who are "the police"? Are they White men or Negroes?

(9) Which of the 4 Freedoms have these Negroes been denied in this righteous war for WORLD freedom? (Pardon the repetition.)

We, Indians, would be grateful to the USOWI for a little enlightenment on these points which appears to affect American War production.

HASTY MEALS— SLUGGISH DIGESTION

In these days when we all have to "go to it," leisurely meals are apt to go by the board, and, all too often heartburn, flatulence and a feeling of heaviness are the net result.

'BISURATED' MAGNESIA acts quickly and surely because it neutralises excess acidity, the real cause of most gastric pain. If therefore you must eat hasty meals or food that disagrees with you, remember to ease your digestion by taking a little 'BISURATED' MAGNESIA. (You will also find 'BISURATED' MAGNESIA beneficial in cases of stomach trouble due to over-indulgence in either food or drink.)
